A Sketch of the Pioneers. . .

A SKETCH

OF FOUNDATION

Perhaps a line drawing. Or a photograph. Or an exquisite sequence of words. Many things become a sketch. Wonderful in its fluidity, precious in its uniqueness, it builds a home in the imagination of each individual. A sketch is an image which lives.

A SKETCH OF LEARNING

The first image of St. John's remains that of school. A living, breathing institution which educates the whole person: the mental, spiritual, and physical man. We have a talented faculty whom we personally greet both as mentors and as friends. We gain knowledge, we gain sight.

A SKETCH OF COMMUNITY

With an opening of the mind, we achieve a new awareness of those about us. Over the course of four years, one cannot help but appreciate the diversity of peers; one cannot help but understand those Common Threads which bind us together. We minister to each other.

St. John's representatives to the District E Cross Country Championship (in order) Brian D' Amelio ('92), Sean Cahill ('91), Eric Souza ('91), Brian Donovan ('92), and State Champion Chris Georgules ('91).

A SKETCH OF VISION

A larger ministry awaits us. We learn to view the world entire without shedding our personal burdens. We look upward and see Dreams. We develop the will to follow them through darkness and despair to the land of promise. To break through the narrow confines of our experience.

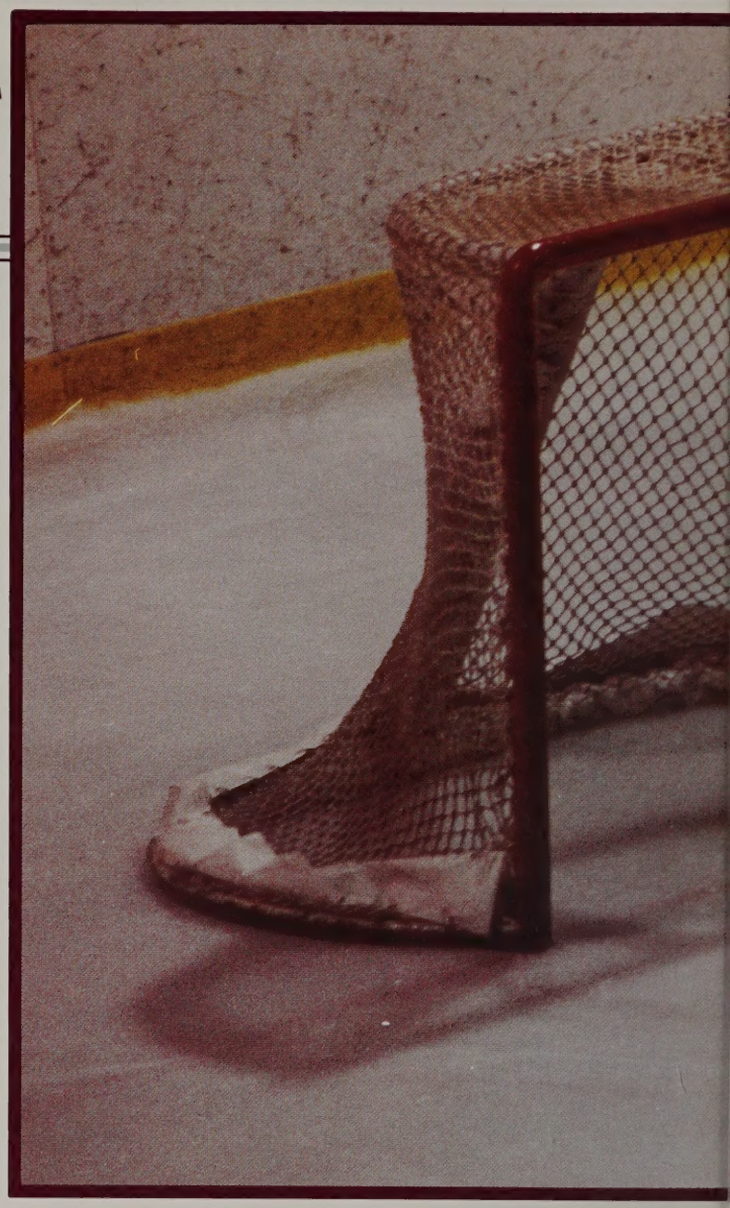
OF SPIRIT

Unity asks that we also look inward. We grapple with knowledge and its implications. We as individuals embark upon a spiritual journey for Truth, a code of ethics by which we might carry our cause passionately and proudly.



Seniors Brian Houle (25), Jason Raymond (31), and Brian Hunt (10) do battle against victorious Leominster at the Central Mass Superbowl at WPI.

OF FRIENDSHIP

The way is not lonely; guides and companions await to share the wonders of the world. We call them Friends. They dwell in unexpected places and form a comforting network about us. This communion fills us out, binds us together, and continues to mold us long after we have dispersed.

▲"Papa!" screams senior Mark Kontulis in his role as Mozart in the Drama Club's fall show "Amadeus."

A SKETCH OF GROWTH

At the intersection, the end of one road is only the beginning of another. We stop for a moment and take a fresh breath of air. We grow, have grown, will grow. The images, these sketches of our experience, live within the fluid of our imagination and compose Memory. It is a gift. . .

Senior Pat Lee at Freshmen Big Brother Day. Is he headed to South Bend in the future??

It's a Small World . . .

The past year can easily be characterized by activism and change. From the environmental crusade of late to the increasing front of democracy around the world, the future has put on a new face. But, the path isn't that easy to follow. We have seen our worst fears confirmed, yet we learned to stand tall in the face of adversity.

Socially Acceptable

Nineteen Ninety-one blew away many remnants of the culture of decadence while giving birth to a new attitude. War and recession pared America down to more socially dynamic size. Not satisfied with resting on our laurels, new voices speak for the future. Many at St. John's echo them.

IN MEMORIAM

GREGORY J. McARDLE CLASS OF '92

POST COMMUNION REFLECTION GIVEN BY

Brother Jim Connolly, C.F.X.

Campus Ministry Director

AT THE LITURGY OF RESURRECTION

As we conclude our Eucharist this morning I would like to share with you a story and some reflections about Greg . . . The story goes that a person came into the world . . . noticing how much darkness there was . . . He lit a light on a hilltop . . . then he went among the people saying . . . Come and see the light . . .

Some said . . . we can see it from where we are . . . Others, we have got enough light as it is . . . But others obeyed his call . . . They came and saw and admired . . . Then he urged them to take some of the light away with them . . . And they bore it with joy . . . That night he looked out across the valley, where previously all was darkness . . . Now a series of lights could be seen . . . Some were small and barely visible . . . Others were large and shone brightly . . . He was happy . . . the size of the light wasn't important . . . What mattered was that he had taught them to believe in the light . . . Christ is the person who lit the light . . . You and I are the bearers of the light . . . Greg in a very special way was a light bearer . . . Greg was a quiet - humble light . . . who refused to make peace with the darkness . . . a young man who shed a light on each of us present here and on the St. John's Family that he loved so much ! Those of us at St. John's who knew Greg knew a young man . . . A light who refused to make peace with the darkness A young man though frail at times in body . . . Let the light of determination shine on . . . This determination lit up the basketball court . . . Where Greg was known as an outside shooter who surprised everyone . . . Especially Mr. Foley, his freshman coach, by being able to dunk in those special three point shots . . . The light of determination burned brightly on the baseball field where in his own quiet way Greg fired a sense of togetherness among his teammates . . . His way a light that refused to make peace with the darkness! Greg was a young man with a vibrant faith . . . Whose life was at times overshadowed with clouds of affliction and family tragedy . . . but who allowed the flame of light to continue to flicker, to burn and to radiate into a disarming smile that for us who knew him could brighten up a darkened day and a dreary corridor.

He was a light that refused to make peace with the darkness . . .

In class, especially Math class, Greg refused to let the darkness of ignorance imprison him . . . but instead took the risk of raising his hand and asking questions that lit up the pathway of Math insight not only for himself . . . but for his classmates! In history class Greg's enthusiasm made him the Number One Outliner in the class!

His was a light that refused to make peace with the darkness!

Greg possessed a great sense of humor . . . He was able to get off his dry one liners or wry comments and was even able to laugh at himself . . . Some of us in dealing with life grin and bear it . . . but Greg smiled and transformed it . . .

His was a light that refused to make peace with the darkness!

Writing about his Dad's own death Greg wrote . . . "The death of my father changed my life drastically. My father's death did not pull my family apart . . . instead it brought us closer together . . . My family has an extremely close relationship which has made each and every one of us stronger . . . more determined to live a happy and successful life . . . " For family, friends . . . for the St. John's Family whose lives have been changed drastically by Greg's death . . . perhaps the challenge is to allow Greg's death to bring us closer together . . . make us stronger . . . more determined to live happy and successful lives . . . To refuse to make peace with the darkness!

Greg in his own special and unique way believed in the light . . . The Lord was his Light and Salvation . . . We have gathered this morning to share and celebrate the Lord, the Light, who came into the darkness and the one whom the darkness was not able to overcome . . . We have come this morning to allow the Lord to nourish us with His Word and His Eucharist . . . Greg allowed himself to be nourished by the Lord's Word and Eucharist, and he allowed the Lord's Light to radiate from him. May we . . . family and friends and the St. John's Family continue to believe in the Light . . . be bearers of the light . . . and may we, like Greg, refuse to make peace with the darkness!

ACTIVITIES

1991

A Class of Leaders

Last August, incoming seniors once again gathered for the traditional Leadership Institute. Yet the Class of '91 was experimental, for the format and style of the 'retreat' had changed considerably. More than ninety young men attended the Institute at the larger facilities available in Ashland.

The three gorgeous days were devoted to building senior community, school spirit and leadership amongst one's peers. Members of the faculty, administration and newly graduated Class of '90 participated in the workshops. The Institute was highly successful in bringing the seniors together as a class, and set the tone for the year which made '91 so special.

More "Brothers"?

The fourth annual "Big Brother Day" was conducted by the members of the student activities council, moderators, Mr. Coggins and Mr. O'Donnell, and dozens of volunteers from the Class of 1991. Seniors received the names of their "Little Brothers" during the summer, letters were exchanged, and everyone finally met on a day filled with fun and games. The Big Brother program encompasses a series of events that ease the tradition from eighth grade to high school for the freshmen. September, the most active month, contains the Field Day and Student Fair held in the gym, the Mass of the Holy Spirit, the first SAC dance and football game of the season, and freshmen night. Thanks to SAC and members of the faculty, this program has been a giant success.

Showing the Way

The St. John's Campus Ministry Office, in its second full year, enjoyed great success due to the dedication of Brother Jim Connolly, C.F.X. and the cooperation and participation of the student body. Among the programs sponsored by the Campus Ministry Office are pastoral counseling, retreat services, "Junior Year Stress", "Tasks of Adolescence", and training eucharistic ministers.

Murder, Mystery, Mozart!

This fall the Saint John's Drama Society turned Quinsigamond Community College's Herbert Auditorium into the palace of Habsburg Emperor Joseph II in their production of Peter Shaffer's Amadeus. The play takes us back to the time of enlightened despotism and retraces the life of the famed composer W. Amadeus Mozart through the eyes of his rival A. Salieri, played respectively by seniors Mark Kontulis and Jay Laporte. The play takes a deep look into Mozart's quick rise to fame followed by his sharp downfall and death. It examines the question of whether or not A. Salieri killed Mozart.

▸The famed composer A. Salieri was "embalmed in fame" by the entire Viennese people.

▸"Now for the first time I feel my emptiness as Adam felt his nakedness" complains Salieri. He knows he'll never be as good as Mozart.

▾Poor, wretched Mozart is informed that no one likes his music anymore by Baron van Swieten (Steve Kenary)

Did he do it after all??

Although the play is centered around the two main composers of the century, it would not be complete without Emperor Joseph II, played by Rob O'Neil, and his court, including Count Orsini Rosenburg, played by Dan McGee. The play concludes with the audience convinced that Salieri has killed Mozart. The truth of the matter is that this is very improbable, and that Mozart died from a disease he had had since his childhood. All in all, the evening was filled with drama and suspense, and the actors did a marvelous job in capturing the compulsion of every individual character.

Just Leave Me Alone!

This was the theme of this year's winter drama production as unwelcome visitor Rick Steadman (Matt Shook '93) prolonged his visit with friend Willum Cubbert (Jon Phillips '91). This knee-slappin' comedy entertained two very full crowds and was acclaimed as one of the funniest shows S.J. has ever produced. Special thanks go out to Mr. Jerry Coggins for his help in this show, as it was only his second (his first being Amadeus in the fall).

The set for The Nerd was designed by and built under the supervision of Peter Morelewicz. Incidentally, this was Peter's first time acting in a show as well. He played the whimsical art critic Axel, who helped set up Rick's visit. In the end, there is a comedic surprise, and everyone gets what they want. Good job, guys!

Silver Follies

Twenty-five years ago Mr. Joseph P. Hayes transformed the gymnasium for Saint John's very first Spring Spectacular. A tradition was started - "a custom so long continued that it has almost become the force of law." This past April the gym was revolutionized once again to celebrate the show's twenty-fifth year of existence with the smashing hit, "Silver Follies". For the first time in twenty-five years, the cast entertained a full house all three nights.

This year's playbill was fun-filled with entertainment from the Oscar, Grammy and the Tony awards. The audience was dazzled with music from the 1990's as well as being "Hooked on Swing". Several numbers from various hit Broadway Musicals, also caught the audience's attention.

Months of preparation were put into this year's show. Many Saturday mornings were spent learning dance steps, memorizing lyrics, designing, and constructing this year's spectacular set. These countless hours did not go unnoticed. They were highly commended on April 26, 27, and 28.

A special word of thanks to Miss Jeanne Frechette, who this year designed and sewed her last costume for the show. We thank her for a job well done. Congratulations to all who helped make this year's show a spectacular (supporters of the ad drive, stage crew, lighting crew, musicians, ushers, refreshment committee, cast and dancers) as well as Mr. Gregory, Mrs. Bouvier, Brother Comeau, Sheila and Kyle.

S.J. Sing - Along!

The Saint John's Chorus once again did a very fine job of filling the corridors with their melodious tunes. Under the direction of Mr. Al Vaudreuil, Mr. Stephen Gregory, and Mr. Brian Mulcahy, the chorus resounded throughout the gym turned church for the entire year. Beginning with the Mass of the Holy Spirit, continuing through Christmas, and finally ending with the Senior Family Mass, the chorus was a source of inspiration for us all. Senior members Matt Fitzgibbons, Jon Lee, and Michael Gondek will be especially missed next year, but with Juniors like Arthur Lew and Michael Sasena, next year is sure to be as good as 1991. Hats off, guys!

All That Jazz

The St. John's Jazz Ensemble enjoyed a busy year of performances. In addition to the traditional Christmas concert, spring concert with WPI, and Entr'acte in the Spring Show, this year the Jazz Band joined NDA for a Valentine's Day performance. Between these performances, preparation for local competitions occupied the band's time. The Ensemble travelled to Boston for the Boston College Bop competition in February. Many of the Band members were able to hone their skills at improvisation by attending an improv class that BC offered to the competition participants. At the end of March, the band competed in the Massachusetts Central District Competition where they earned a bronze medal.

The Many Faces of Scholarship

The Brother Campion chapter of the National Honor Society busied itself once again this year with scholarship, leadership, character and service. In addition to the perennial tutorial service and contribution to the Ad Drive, the NHS undertook the monumental task in October of constructing and staffing a Haunted House in the Greendale Mall for the benefit of Easter Seals. In addition, members attended "My Three Angels" at Foothills, participated in WalkAmerica and volunteered for the Very Special Arts Program to help special needs students from Worcester elementary schools.

Senior officers were: President Andre Leroux, Vice-President Justin Ziegler, Secretary Josh Delman, and Treasurer Brian Consigli. The annual Banquet honored many student achievers, as well as guest speaker Rev. William Barry of the Jesuits. Mr. Pat Dolan and Mr. Pat Gillis were honored with the coveted Faculty Service Award by the Class of '91 for their special contributions to our years at SJ.

An Auction Not Of This Universe

A quotation like "May the force be with you" can represent the themes of the tenth annual Mother's Guild Auction. As the school was transformed into a miniature solar system, students and members of the faculty worked to make the auction a great success. Pictures of R-2D2, C-3PO, and Darth Vader welcomed willing bidders as silent and oral auctions were held. Prizes, such as concert tickets, were raffled off to fortunate participants of the auction as a prime rib dinner satiated the appetite of the hungry bidders. Again, Paul Zekos led the auction as he worked with an enormous space shuttle in the background. Also, Brother Fahey wore an alien costume which is just one of the many costumes that he wore to the enjoyment of the audience as he and many others made this year's auction a success.

Simulated Fun

The past school year represents the greatest season of success in the history of St. John's Model United Nations. Chris Butterly overlooked the rest of the bureaucracy from his perch atop the SJIRC. Weekly meetings run by Colin Novick and Rob O'Neil honed the talents of newcomers while tackling issues such as the Persian Gulf crisis, chemical weapons, and a new communications order.

Many weeks of preparation culminated in our own regional conference, SJMUNC V, and presided over by Secretary-General Andre Leroux and Chef-du-Cabinet Colin Novick. This served to prepare local delegates for the wildly intense national conferences at Harvard, Chicago, and Georgetown.

Key senior delegates on the powerhouse troupe included Kevin McNamara, Chris Heywood, John Teitenberg, Jon Phillips, Jon O'Brien, Justin Ziegler, and Ken Noller. Together with talented undergrads, the seniors garnered over twenty awards during the year.

In addition, Phil Farese headed the Panel Discussion Program, transforming it into a successful forum. The end of the year brought Notre Dame to the second annual UN Dinner; Dr. Ziegler of Assumption College was guest speaker. Special thanks for hours of service, moderators Mr. Novick, Mr. Laborde, and Mr. McMaster.

Winning . . . by the numbers

In 1990-91 the St. John's math team completed its 14th season in the Worcester County Mathematics League and for the sixth time in the last eight years the varsity took the league title. In finishing first in Division A, St. John's tied the league record for most total points. The team was led by senior Jonathan Lee who was third high scorer for the year. Other members of the team receiving high scoring honors from the League included: Ed Hanson who took fourth place as well as top sophomore; Dan Louzonis who took sixth place and top junior; and Sameer Bhalotra who finished in 20th place and was the top freshman in the varsity competition. Senior Aaron Prisco and juniors Phil Farese and Linh Ha finished in 9th, 13th and 17th place, respectively, from among over 400 competitors.

St. John's finished in second place in the Medium school division of the State meet, losing to Amherst by only two points. This represented St. John's best finish since winning the State title in 1986. Ed Hanson, Dan Louzonis and Phil Farese led the team and also received high scoring honors at the meet. St. John's finished fifth at the New England Math Meet in the medium school division, with senior Michael Thompson earning recognition as a high scorer. St. John's also fields a freshman team in the Worcester County Mathematics League. This year, the freshman team took first place at all three of its meets and first place overall for the year in Division A. Sameer Bhalotra took top scoring honors with a perfect score at all three meets. He is only the second person in the history of the league to have a perfect score in freshman competition. Michael Sung and Dan Turnquist also helped to lead the team and finished among the top ten individual high scorers.

Mr. Stephen Gretory is coach of the varsity math team and Mr. Gerry Taylor is coach of the freshman team.

A Sketch of SJ

The 1991 Yearbook Staff brainstormed during the summer months to develop the theme of the book you are now holding, "A Sketch of Saint John's." The plan for the book was to add to the standard photos and captions a new twist. This new twist is the inclusion of various sketches and drawings to the book. As you can very well see, this plan, through long hours and a lot of determination, has paid off. The staff believes they have produced an edition that equals, if not surpasses, the editions that have come before.

A key to pulling all of these aspects of art, photos and text together was the superb guidance of the editors, seniors Mark Kontulis, Brian Carmody and Aaron Prisco. Along with them, their faithful student staff comprised of about twenty underclassmen labored for hundreds of hours to add new ideas and insights to the book. This dedication is what really made the difference.

As you read this, the staff is already hard at work on the 1992 edition under the leadership of the three new editors, Rick Subrizio, and Brian Anderson and Tom Gregory.

A final word of thanks goes out to Mr. Patrick Gillis and Br. Robert Furlong whose help, guidance and tolerance is greatly appreciated.

Un Soneto De Amor A Mi Novia

por Matthew Simitis

Mi novia, escribí esto a mí mismo preguntando,
¿Como puedo yo mejor expresar mi amor hacia ti?
¡El sentimiento es tan fuerte que crea celos!
Los sentimientos que yo siento, son como si yo fuera el Rey.

El toque de tu piel me lleva a la locura
Pero es la belleza de tu mente que me gusta ver.
Esta relación, fue destinada,
Porque de otro modo yo estaría botando del techo.

El sonido de tu voz me tiene loco,
Lo que me niegas con una docilidad potente.
Tú me tienes en un estado bello de bienaventuranza
La flecha de Cupido, oh, nunca se ha desviado.
Regalos materiales a ti son inútiles,
Te negaré todo, menos Un Beso Tan Dulce.

The Arts . . .

In the fall of 1990 a new activity at St. John's was formed - the Art and Photography Club. The purpose of the club is to provide an opportunity to members of the St. John's community to experience the arts more fully. Activities included drawing and photography workshops, museum visits, and student participation in an art and photography exhibit. Highlights of the year were a photography workshop by area photographer Kathy Leone, and St. John's involvement in the Cultural Assembly Gallery of Worcester's high school art exhibit: "TEEN ART SEEN: Art from Area High Schools." Senior Bill Swallow was club president, sophomore Joe Becker, vice president and Mr. Patrick Gillis served as advisor.

A point to argue . . .

St. John's debaters in the 1990-91 season had success at all levels. In national competition, senior Timothy Barouch (winner of the Mortimer and Kathleen Buckley award for outstanding debater in the class) and senior Jeb Adams gained for St. John's the best team showing since debate was reintroduced to St. John's four years ago. By finishing in the octo-finals at Glenbrook South, Jeb and Tim have set a standard for next year's debaters to exceed.

Tim Barouch and sophomore Martin Boudreau had many successful outings together. Seniors Chris Fischer and Jeb Adams finished their St. John's careers with several strong performances. The Novice State Champions of last year, Marty Boudreau, Brian Prestes, Vu Nguyen and Chris Zieminski, all had a credible first year in varsity competition achievement. Kurt Hansen emerged as an above-average novice. Michael Sung and David Turnquist are two extremely promising freshmen. Sophomore Bill Zenon will attend an Iowa debate institute which should help him greatly in the future. Freshman Saif Anwarrudin and sophomores Sean Linnehan and Phillip Cunningham should contribute strongly next year as well. Marty, Brian, Vu, Kurt, Michael, Dave and perhaps a few others will head to institute in hot pursuit of the current highest achievements, the best team performance of Tim and Jeb at Glenbrook and the individual best of Matt Celona, ninth best speaker of 240 at the Bronx, New York.

Three visits to New York involved competitions at the Bronx High School of Science, Monticello and Hendrick Hudson High Schools. In state, the team competed at UMASS in Amherst and at Lexington and Manchester and in the State Finals. Lexington High captured this year's State Championship; St. John's debaters look to win it both as juniors and seniors.

A New Literary Horizon

On November 10 at the Manor House, something new was born. Something ominous. Something called the First Annual Worcester County Young Writers' Conference. This convocation brought together seventy-three students from area high schools and eight professional writers together to work and discuss the art of writing. Mr. David Vilandre, Mr. Michael Novick, and several SJ students both organized and implemented the first venture of its kind locally.

Success! It all ran quite smoothly and everyone seemed satisfied, even a bit sad as they left. Students gathered Saturday and Sunday to work in small groups with their "mentors." Introductory speaker was James Dempsey of the T&G, while Alexander Wolff of Sports Illustrated closed out the dinner. All in all, it was a day to remember, a great step toward developing a creative arts program.

SACcess

In fulfilling their obligations and completing what was expected of them, the 1990-91 Student Activities Council enjoyed a successful year. The S.A.C. officers included President Brian Hunt, Vice President Jim Coleman, Activities Coordinator Brian Reidy, Treasurer Brian Carmody, Parliamentarian Pete Castaldi, Secretary Brian Donovan, and Publicity Director Gio Woodman. The council was moderated by Mr. Jay Coggins and Mr. Tony O'Donnell.

After their induction, these officers went straight to work to benefit the S.J. student body. They organized the Big Brother Program, which served as a catalyst for the ever successful Freshman Day. S.J. students enjoyed the many S.A.C. sponsored social activities such as the Lip Sync Dance and the Annual Thanksgiving Pep Rally which featured a rousing speech from Raul Laborde.

These dedicated students also furthered Saint John's commitment to serving the community and its less fortunate members by conducting effective food and clothing drives as well as the annual Red Cross Blood Drive. These programs could not have reached their levels of overwhelming success without the generous efforts of the students.

Brown Eyed Girl

On May 11, Mechanics Hall was filled with well over one hundred couples as they danced the night away at this year's Junior Prom. The music jockies played entertaining music as Creedon Catering provided an appetizing meal for the participants. Junior class officers: Charles Eppinger, Brian D'Amelio, and Brian Donovan worked with Junior class moderators, Mr. Vilandre and Mr. Dana, to ensure that the evening was a success. The theme of this year's prom was Van Morrison's "Brown Eyed Girl".

On Saturday 17, 1991, the class of '93 enjoyed a fun-filled and exciting night at their semi-formal. The dedicated kitchen staff of St. John's provided a delicious chicken dinner with rice pilaf and carrots for the sophomores and their dates. Semi-'94

DANCE! Was the word, this March 15th, as the members of the freshmen class held their annual semiformal dance in the cafeteria. Ninety-two couples attended this gala event. The staff provided a delicious full course meal that was topped off with sundae's for dessert. The night was also made possible by the moderators, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Mariano, and Mr. Morin to name a few. Special thanks are also extended to the sophomore class officers, Matt Shook, Chris Colman, and R.J. McGrail for their tedious work as soda vendors. The night, also, could not have been complete without the "rip-roarin" sounds of the Perry Conte disc jockeys. St. John's Varsity Football

Pride! That is what the varsity squad can boast of. They won their third consecutive title within the Central Mass. Conference while they appeared in the Super Bowl for the second time in three years. One of the most important factors for this team's success was leadership; the team consisted of twenty two seniors. These seniors would tell you that they never lost a game at Pioneer Field and lost a mere four games in their four year tenure. The team finished the season with a heartbreaking loss to Leominster in the Super Bowl. However, the team collected 9 wins opposed to 2 losses. The St. John's Offense proved to be overpowering as the line functioned very effectively, despite criticisms of the lack of size. The combination of Brian Hunt and John Clifford through the air, and the ground attack of Jason Raymond, Pat Cullen, Brian Houle, and Stan Szczurko scored a total of points. The team hopes that the underclassmen can continue the school's rich tradition. Brian Hunt, John Clifford, and Todd Oetting were all selected to play in the Hall of Fame All-Star Game.

J.V. Football

The Saint John's Junior Varsity Football Team had an impressive 8-2 season under the coaching staff of Aaron Powell and Scott Hay. Running back Matt Shook, Mike Williams, and Nick Trippi led a quick and powerful running game. Quarterbacks Rich Boss and Broc Elmore lofted up an air attack to receivers Chris Colman, Nick Sinerate, and Nick Trippi. The team's defense also had a fantastic year led by linebacker John McCluskey and defensive backs Mike Vazquez, Rich Boss, and Chris Colman. Also a very special thanks goes out to the ever-amazing offensive and defensive lines of Fran Christie, Chris Consigli, Brett Duca, John McCluskey, Tom Maukley, Matt McCauliffe, Jeff Elbers, Mike Williams, Steve Riordan, Steve Gregorczyk, Brian Garvin, and more.

Splash-ball!

Wachusett Regional teamed with "Mother Nature" in the guise of a torrential windblown rainstorm to bring this memorable soccer season to a splashing halt in the district finals. This talented squad left in its wake many accomplishments: a 15-0-2 regular season, the first since 1976; a 7th place national ranking by U.S.A. Today; top seed in the district tournament for the third year in a row; and a Central Mass. Conference Championship. Captains Andy "Murph" Zereski, Steve Roncone (All-State, T&G Super Team) and Mike Gondek (T&G Super Team) kept the team on course all season long. Roncone (19 goals and 14 assists) and Rob Walsh (18 goals and 12 assists) stormed opponents nets, while the defense led by seniors Gondek, Joe Javorski, Kevin Michelson and Mike Flaherty caused many a scoring drought for the opposition. Bill Ryan, Craig Boucher, Pete Lancette and Matt Cranson provided the added senior talent and leadership so vital to a smooth flowing offensive and defensive game. Certainly this year was a high water mark in our school's illustrious soccer history. The underclassmen talent pool is filled with promise. Undefeated freshman and sophomore squads along with returning varsity players led by co-captains elect Jason Wrzosek and Josh Nunnemacher promise a star filled season to come.

7th Heavan

By Georg(-ules), the St. John's Cross Country team won their 7th District Title in a row, tying the state record for most consecutive district championships. The S.J. harriers were led by the greatest runner in the state, Chris Georgules. Georgules had a spectacular season in becoming the Middlesex Area Meet Champ, Knights of Columbus Invitational Champ, Brown University Invitational Champ, Wachusett Invitational Champ, District E Champ (2 years in a row), and State Class A Champ in a dramatic come - from - behind dash past the favored Ted Fitzpatrick of Lexington at the finish line. This State Champ (1st ever in Cross Country for St. John's) went on to place 7th in the Northeast Regional and culminated his season with a 26th place finish against the most elite runners in the U.S. at the Kinney Nationals in California.

This undefeated team won the Middlesex Area Meet, the Wachusett Invitational, and were crowned CMC champions. In winning the 7th District Title, S.J. placed 4 in the top 6 and 6 in the top 10. St. John's, led by Georgules, Sean Cahill, Eric Souza, Geoff Fornari, Brian Donavon, Brian D'Amelio, and Pat Murphy, placed 5th in the State Championship - its highest ever.

Although this team loses key leadership from its seniors, returning are Donovan, D'Amerio, Murphy, Kirk Souza, Tom Cecil, and Roy Sevigny. Look out next year as these returnees and others seek a state record 8th straight District Title.

Floating Around

The Saint John's Fall Crew Team, coached by John Deedy, Peter Griffin, Michael Hannigan, and John Argitis, had a very fine season starting in September. The team was led by co-captains Rob Yauchoes and John Lock. They set an excellent example and motivated the nervous freshman who worked out with the varsity early in the season. The first boat placed second in the Head of Connecticut and raced competitively in the Textile Regatta, the Head of the Charles, and the Snake Race. The other boats also had very good seasons.

A Bunch of Tall People '91

The pride of the Pioneers was exemplified to its highest stature this past season by the Saint John's basketball squad. Although there were only four seniors, co-captain Steve Purpura, co-captain Rob Walsh, Frank Stevens and Bob Blute, their leadership proved to be a big boost in the teams sixteen wins against only five defeats. Purpura led the team in points and rebounds for the second straight year while Walsh, Stevens and Soph. Todd Marrone were all putting their shots through the hoop with ease. In addition, juniors Shawn Halloran and Chris Zack had very successful seasons and along with Marrone plan to be the backbone of next years' team.

To culminate this season, which ended with a heartbreaking loss to Wachusett 84-80 in the District E Quarterfinals, Stevens and Marrone were named to the Central Mass. Conference All-star team, Blute was named to the All-state Academic Team, and Purpura finished off an illustrious career as a C.M.C. all-star, a Telegram and Gazette all-star and was honored as a member of the All-state Academic First team.

Another great year for the Pioneers.

Slapshot!

The St. John's Varsity hockey team did not disappoint in keeping with tradition as they took the District Championship for the fourth time in five years. The flashy, wide-open style indicative of the previous years' State Finalist team was replaced by a hard-nosed, hard-working team throughout the season. Although the St. John's skaters played some of the best competition in the state, they still ended the regular season with an impressive 12-8 record. Even with an uncharacteristic fifth seeding in the District Tournament, St. John's never stopped giving the necessary 110%. Hard work would pay off as crosstown rival St. Peter Marian fell victim to the ferocious pioneer attack in the finals by a score of 3-1.

Throughout the season, the team was led in scoring by Captain Joe Javorski, Brian McNeil, and Junior Kayne Bosma. More importantly, however, was the senior leadership provided by forwards Rob Lock, Derek Alfama, Curt Busenburg, and Chris Langevin. Heading the defensive crew was the senior duo of Jeff Tagman and Chris Lablanc. The leadership provided by the eight seniors throughout the season was exactly what Coach Brian Murphy and Coach Tim Duffy were looking for as the team headed for the District playoffs.

Before entering the finals, St. John's needed quarterfinal and semifinal wins over Leominster and North Middlesex. Sparked by the tragic accident of Sophomore Todd Lawrence's broken leg in the North Middlesex game and an earlier season upset by St. Peter Marian, the Pioneers were more than ready to do battle with the Guardians in the Finals. Tough defense and timely scoring would provide the victory in the finals. Although the team encountered a disappointing loss to a talented Springfield Cathedral team in the State Semifinals, their valiant efforts displayed throughout the season were much appreciated by the coaches and fans and with return of Juniors Kayne Bosma and Derek Mohammed and Freshman star goalie Darren Thomas, the St. John's hockey tradition should live on.

State Champs

St. John's was truly amazing this winter in winning their fourth straight District E. Championship and completing an undefeated season. Also amazing was the fact that they captured the State All Class Championship along with co-champion Brockton High School. Attributing to the SJ success was senior Eric Souza who broke the school record for the 600 m. run and was part of the 4x880 New England Championship relay team. Also part of this championship relay team and new mile record holder for the school was senior Chris Georgules. Other members of the relay team were senior Sean Cahill, and Roy Sevigny who holds the freshman mile record.

This tremendously successful season was attributed to the strong performance of St. John's athletes. But the real motivator, coordinator, and "athlete", is Head Coach Richard Donohue. Thank you Coach Donohue for your motivation and patience.

The Kings Of Swing

When spring swings in another season of Pioneer baseball is right behind. As usual a successful outcome was achieved this year. The Varsity had a regular season record of 16-4, and made it to the second round of District play. The JV and Freshman teams had great seasons also: going 15-5 and 13-2 respectively.

Senior co-captains John Clifford and Brian Hunt led a relatively young team. With no Senior pitchers, the Juniors and Sophomores pulled their loads. Chris Zack and Jared Forgues had phenominal seasons, and Rich Roach had another productive season. Jim O'Brien and J.R. Thomas added youthful vigor to the team. The hitting of Mike Alberts should have earned him more respect from opposing pitchers. The whole team produced in clutch moments and made the plays.

The good work by the fielders and hitters allowed St. John's to have another winning season to be proud of. The talent of the JV and Freshman teams show great promise for the future.

"Simply Smashing"

The St. John's tennis team had a successful 15-2 season under the guidance of a new head coach, Mr. Mariano, and assistant coach Mrs. Firnstein. Senior Captains Rob Jachimczyk and Brian Cunniff and Co-captain Justin Lundberg lead the squad to a tremendous season highlighted by its appearance in the District Tournament finals, eventually losing to Wachusett Regional, 3-2. These captains headed a talented team that included sophomore doubles partners De Nguyen and Ronaldo Garcias who made it to the semi-finals in the Individuals District Tournament, and Mr. Mariano predicts future success as exemplified by the efforts of Juniors Bob Elster and Sean Hogan, Sophomores Stephen Rodgers and Kurt Powers, and Freshman Khoa Nguyen, Dave Laidlaw, and Doug Laidlaw.

The Linksters

What a season! With a strong Senior lineup, the St. John's Golf Team compiled an impressive 15-1 record, losing only to Wachusett. However, the team ended the year with a win over Wachusett to take the district championship. Senior Mark Alizzeo was the 1991 Pioneer Award winner. Along with Mark, Senior Brian McNeil was Co-Captain of this year's squad. Qualifying for the state individuals was Mark Alizzeo and Dave DeWolf. A major factor in this year's success was the contributions of the six Seniors. Congratulations to those individuals.

"Crewsing Through Spring"

This crew of rowers was not only renowned on the homefront, but also a national success story. They stroked through success in Syracuse, N.Y., Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and Philadelphia. Although all three varsity boats rowed well at the New England's, the 3rd Boat excelled by finishing 3rd in its division. Coaches spotted outstanding performances by Seth Lemansky, receiver of the Pioneer Award for his dedication, and Tom Jakubiak for his competitive rowing in Sculls events . . . A truly great season.

Triple Crown

This year's spring track season was the culmination of a fantastic year in Cross Country, Winter Track, and Spring Track. Each season's team won their respective District title which resulted in a rare and coveted Triple Crown. The only other school ever to attain this feat was St. John's in 1985.

The team, coached by Dick Donohue and Tom Massarelli, was defeated only once, when it lost to rival Wachusett by 1 point early in the season. The tracksters took Central Mass Conference titles, the District Class title, and the District title this year.

S.J. was led by co-captains Eric Souza (800 meter District Champ) and Kevin McNamara. Other outstanding individuals were Carl Dragstedt (110 high hurdles champ and school record holder), Chris Georgules (Mile Champ), Chad Kopp (High Jump champ and school record holder), Joe Javorski, Sean Cahill, Dave Standring, Mike Bergan, and Tony Endriga.

Individuals and relay teams broke 11 school records and tied 9 others.

Repeats and Dandelions

Can you say "Ree-peat"? Mr. Novick can. His homeroom, 204, were the Roundball Champs in the Senior Intramural Basketball Tournament for the second yaer in a row. In the volleyball tourney, "Side-Out" was not left out of the winner's circle. They endured the fierce competition and in the end blossomed like a big, fat dandelion. All of this intramural excitement would not have been possible without the efforts of class moderators (Mr. Hamelin, Mr. Lahey, Mr. Jourcin & Mr. White) and the phys. ed. department (Mr. White and Mr. Loftus & Mr. Lane of the Alumni office).

Athletic Department

This year's Annual Athletic Banquet was one of the most successful in recent memory. In this case, success came in many different forms. Athletic Director Robert Foley as the Master of Ceremonies conducted the festivities, leading us through a delicious dinner prepared by our cafeteria staff. From there, Coach Foley led the sports coaches as they took to the past, recalling some of the highlights of the season and pointing out the leaders of the future. Of course the coaches culminated their respective speeches by announcing the 1990/91 Pioneer Award winners.

What made this year so memorable was the fact that those chosen were not measured by sheer talent but success. Dean DiPilato was the '90 Soccer Pioneer Award winner. Chosen by Head Coach Brian Foley, he was selected because of his success as a team leader not by how many goals he scored - Dean did not play one minute this season because of a foot injury. That showed the type of person the St. John's staff looks for in an athlete. Another aspect that stood out was the superb college placement of the award winners and athletes alike. It showed a tremendous representation of St. John's as a top - notch school; also a tribute to the teachers, parents, and guidance counselors.

The evening culminated with the presentation of several special awards. The Ted Provo Memorial Award was presented to Brian Consigli for dedication and perseverance to athletics. The District E Athletic Directors' Award was presented to Chris Georgules, also the Pioneer Award winner for Cross Country. Frank Stevens was awarded with the Peter Bibaud Award for the best defensive basketball player. The Gary McNulty Memorial Award was given to Rob Walsh as the 1990/91 outstanding athlete. Coach Foley concluded the ceremonies with a special presentation to Joe Lane, our Alumni Director with an award for outstanding contributions to St. John's Athletics. Overall the event was one to remember for a long time.

More Than Words

We knew our 4 years were almost up when we saw the prom come and go. With especially careful planning by the class moderators and officers, more than 150 couples enjoyed a Sirloin Dinner. The prom was enjoyed by all, and a special thanks must be given to Senior Class Officers: Eric Souza, Sean Cahill, and Todd Oetting. A Breaking Of Bread

On Sunday, May 19, the Senior Class came together liturgically for the last time for the annual Senior Family Day Eucharistic Celebration. Father Edward Niccolls, '66, was the celebrant, assisted by seven members of the Class of '91. The Mass booklet was dedicated to Br. Thomas Fahey and Mr. Leo Hamelin for their twenty-five years of dedicated service. A reception followed in the cafeteria, where a good time was had by all.

The Final Detail

The Class of 1991 presented itself at the Worcester Memorial auditorium on Tuesday, May 21. After S.A.C. president Brian Hunt's warm welcome, the 245 graduates proceeded to receive their diplomas from Bishop Timothy Harrington, the evening's chief celebrant. After the diplomas were handed out, Brother Conal gave out the Xaverian Award, the Forensics Award, and the Achievement Award to Joe Javorski, Tim Barouch, and André Leroux, respectively. The ceremony was then turned over to André Leroux for his heart felt Valediction. Finally came Bishop Harrington's benediction, and then it was over; four long, hard years were brought to a screeching halt. Now it's time for another four! Congratulations to the class of 1991!

Final Thoughts

What a funny thing.

The Class of 1991 has graduated. It's not an especially sad or troubling thing. No use talking about the inevitability of time, of looking back, of beginnings and of endings. It is none of that, it's just a little funny, the kind of funny which runs its tingling fingers up and down your spine and makes you hold your breath.

Hey, we're sketches now. We're in the dark crevices of people's minds and they can't get us out. The great thing is, we're alive too. We can be sketched onto some great drawing board with a big, fat, uppity-colored marker where we can become a divine living composition and where we can smile and backflip and somersault and do yippees and frolic and jump in the daisies then smell them and gee.

What a funny idea.

Acknowledgments

The editors and staff of A Sketch would now like to thank those without whom the yearbook would not have been such a success.

Brother J. Conal Owens, Brother Stephen Comeau, Brother Thomas Fahey, Brother Thomas Morrissey, Mr. Robert Moynagh, and Mr. Jay Coggins for their incessant support.

The entire Student's Activities Council, including moderators Mr. Jay Coggins and Mr. Anthony O'Donnell for their allocation of funds.

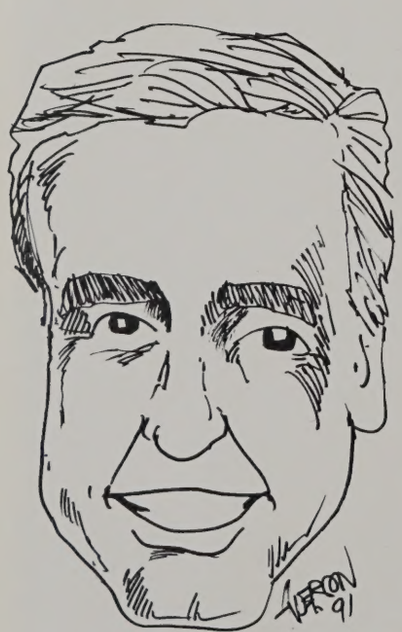
The faculty and staff of St. John's for all their patience in assisting the staff in obtaining photos and in identifying students, as well as for their ideas and encouragement.

Mrs. Jeanne Garvey and Mrs. Nancy Lane for their services and assistance.

Mr. Francis "Skip" Doyle for sharing his professional photos with us.

Mr. David Roth of Walsworth Publishing Company for his creative ideas and enthusiastic encouragement.

One Last . . .



The Yearbook Staff and especially the Editors, Brian Carmody, Mark Kontulis, and Aaron Prisco, would like to offer a special thanks to two men who have striven to teach us about artistic creativity. As you can probably tell, the 1991 yearbook is filled with creativity. We experimented with many new ideas this year, and we think we were a big success. Well, these two men are always trying new things to enlighten the student body, and we see it fit to give them a heart-felt thank you for their dedication and devotion. Mr. Pat Dolan and Mr. Pat Gillis, we thank you!

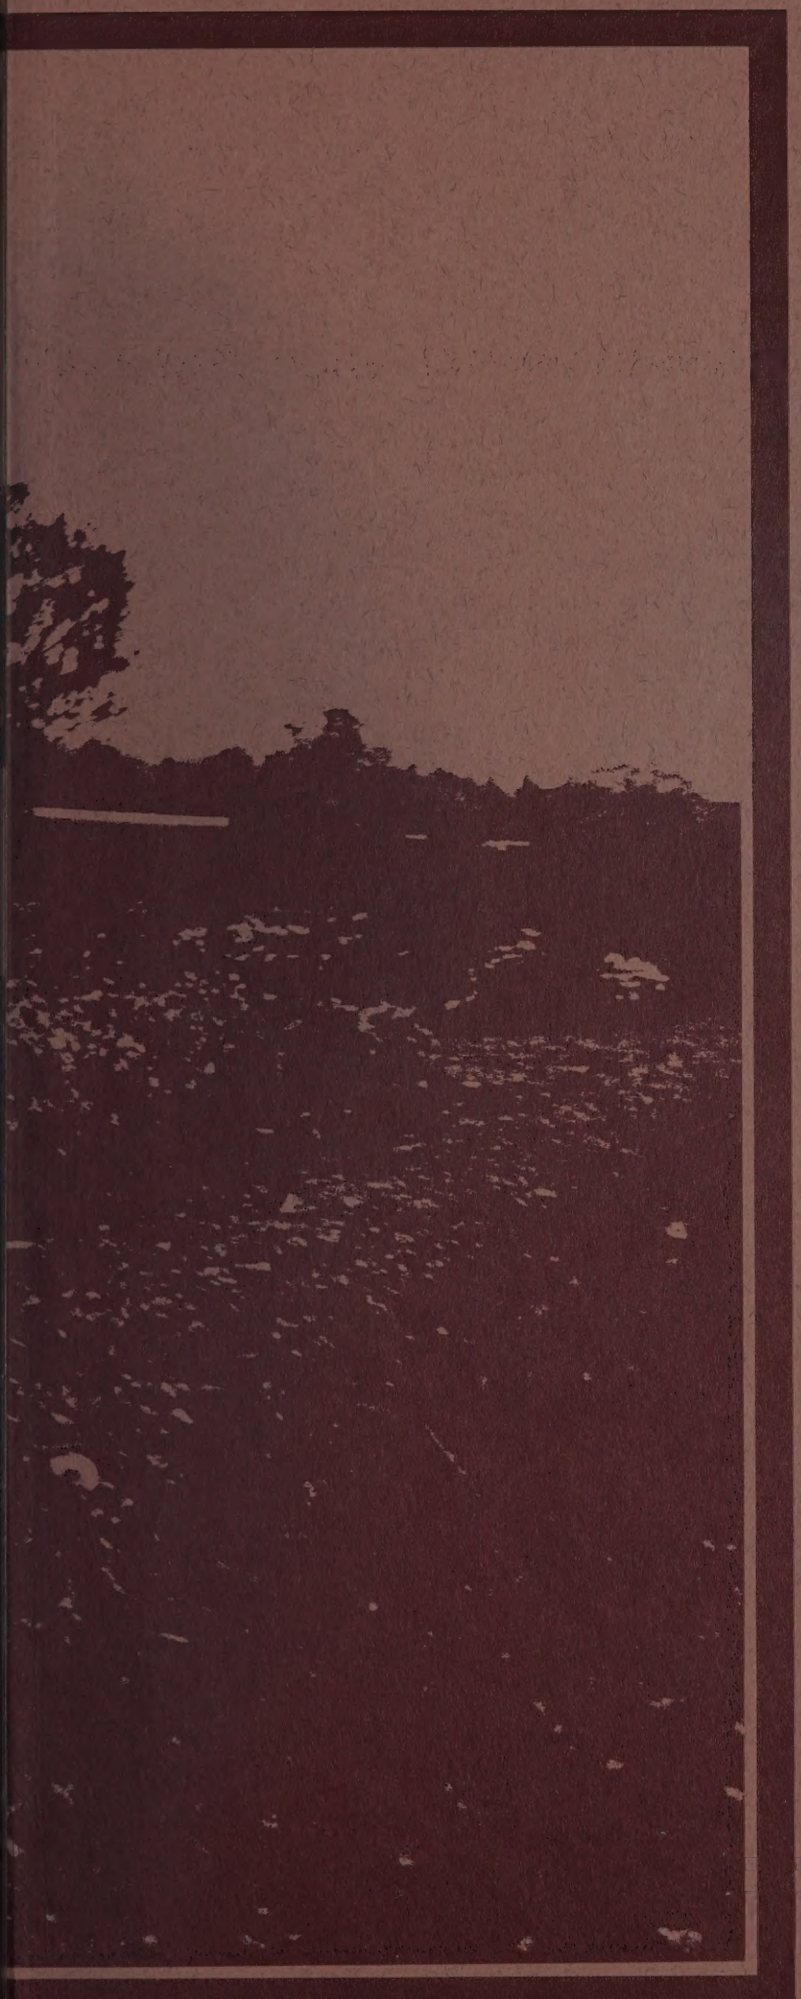
SAINT JOHN'S



COLOPHON:

The 1991 Saint John's High School Yearbook, entitled "A Sketch," was published by Walsworth Publishing Company, 9233 Ward Parkway, Kansas City, Missouri 64114. Publishers Representative: David M. Roth. 550 copies were published in September of 1991, as well as, 2500 "Admissions Over-Runs" and 500 "Preview Books" published in May of 1991.

The yearbook consisted of 208 pages. 40 pages of 4-color were submitted. 168 pages of Black and White were submitted. Pages #1-16 were printed on 100 pound Ultra-Gloss paper, with the remainder on 80 pound enamel gloss. In addition, one (1) two-page tissue paper tip-in appeared before page one, and, four (4) two-page tip-ins on endsheet weight #710R recycled paper stock appeared before pages 16, 64, 128 and 176.

Special effects included the usage of Maroon #222 and Silver #801 within the opening section. Maroon #222 was also utilized on all endsheet weight and tissue paper tip-ins. Wine ribbon #275 was also tipped into each yearbook.

Typography base styles were from the Times Roman family. Headlines at 36 point. Body Copy at 10 point. Captions at 8 point. Quadrata and Optima were also used for special emphasis.

The cover was produced on a base material leatherette of Mulburry #806. Applications included Silver #801, a black rub, and crush grain #2. Stone design was embossed with the center area debossed in Seal grain #22.

The 2500 "Admissions Over-Runs" consisted of the yearbook's opening sixteen (16) pages, as well as, a paper cover of endsheet weight #710R recycled stock. The cover was printed utilizing Silver Foil #900 and Maroon Ink #222. Admissions information was printed on the inside covers in Maroon #222.

The 500 "Preview Books" were identical to the Admissions Over-Runs, except for a deletion of the inside cover copy. Inside covers were left blank for student gathering of signatures.

1991 Senior Editors were Mark Kontulis, Brian Carmody and Aaron Prisco.

The 1991 St. John's High School Yearbook was chosen by Walsworth Publishing Company to be a National Marketing Sample Book.
